MULTNOMAH ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

THANK YOU!

The Multnomah Athletic Foundation remains committed to increasing access to participation in athletics and education for youth. It's not the actual sport or field of study that matters most—it's the life lessons acquired along the way that make a lasting impression. With our donors and volunteers' support, youth from underserved and underfunded communities get access to more equitable spaces for learning and to pursue other opportunities.

Together we can create opportunities that make positive and formative experiences possible. The Foundation provides community grants and scholarships so that youth have the chance to acquire skills that extend beyond the playing field and classroom. COMMUNITY POWERS POSSIBILITIES

Regardless of when you find your way to this story, there is a good chance a young person in the metro area is benefiting from the work of the Multnomah Athletic Foundation. It might be a third grader in North Portland slipping on a mitt for the first time with help from MAF grant partner Friends of Baseball. It might be a high school student working out in MAC's Fitness Room as part of the MAC Scholar Athlete Program. It could even be a college freshman, packing her bags for the trip to Oregon State with help from a Loprinzi Scholarship. This is the essence of the Foundation's work; striving to increase access to athletic participation and educational opportunities.

"We don't create these opportunities, but we work hard to help create access to them," says MAF Executive Director Lisa Bendt. "It's not just the money, it's opportunities — helping youth to know what's out there."

One of the ways the Foundation fuels those opportunities is through the Spin-A-Thon, its popular annual fundraiser.

This year, the event will broaden its reach. Don't like to spin? You can still participate!

The traditional Spin-A-Thon returns with three one-hour slots on Sunday, February 6 starting at 7:30 a.m. Also, throughout that weekend, you can opt to take part in The Move. The concept is simple: do any movement activity you like and log it on an app provided by the Foundation.

And finally, you can attend the event party, even if you didn't attend the ride or the move. It's a great way to connect with friends and raise money for the foundation. And, did we mention there is an auction?

Look for more details on these events at MultnomahAthleticFoundation.com, or see the January edition of The Winged M.
